

GREEN
HOUSE
DATA

Built right. Just for you.

Seattle, WA

Seattle Data Center

Westin Building Exchange

Seattle Data Center

Three data center floors in one of the largest interconnection points in the nation.

Green House Data operates 17,000 square feet of white space in the Westin Building exchange, with full redundancy, custom deployments, and access to one of the most active peering exchanges in the world backed by 24/7/365 customer service.

White Space Details

Total white space: 17,000 sq. ft.

Total power 0.56 MW

Power density of 1.98 to 4.88 kW per cabinet

Diesel backup generators with priority fueling agreements

Uninterruptable power supplies (UPS)

120v/208v AC power

500 Amp DC power

Proactive power management

Efficient climate control – hot/cold aisle segregation

Humidity and zone temperature control

5.7 kW max load three phase PDUs

Security Measures

24x7x365 video surveillance with 90-day retention

Biometric and card key authentication for entry

Preaction fire detection and suppression

HIPAA, SSAE 18 (SOC 1 & 2) SOX, & PCI compliance

Background checks for all employees

Networking and Fiber

Diverse on-net carriers

Level(3)

cogent
COMMUNICATIONS

zayo

SIX
SEATTLE INTERNET EXCHANGE

1-100 Gbps connections

Tier I backbone carriers

Geographically diverse data centers interconnected via Multiple Protocol Label Switching (MPLS) network

Western Washington WAN service

PNAP (Private Network Access Point)

Network path diversity

Multi-homed Internet connectivity

Inbound traffic diversity through multi-carrier IP advertising

Direct access to the Seattle Internet Exchange (SIX)

Available fiber and copper meet-me rooms

866.995.3282
www.greenhousedata.com
340 PROGRESS CIRCLE
CHEYENNE, WY 82007

